Nyayo National Stadium

Nyayo National

Stadium is the second largest in Kenya. It is located in Nairobi County. Before it was built, Kenyan champions practised in smaller fields. The stadium is round and has several gates. Water is often sprinkled on the grass to keep it green. In the middle, there is a football field. Between the field and the seats there is a track. The track has lanes that are marked in white. There are areas for field events like javelin, shotput and other games. Many other games like football, volleyball and netball are played in this stadium. Different teams come to the stadium to compete. People enjoy watching and cheering their teams. The seats in the stadium are of different colours. They look like colourful stairs from afar. Many athletics competitions take place in Nyayo National Stadium. Our school captain will request our headteacher to visit the Stadium. If the request is accepted, we will be very happy.

Answer the questions.
